

PRESS RELEASE

The Superior Court of California, County of Glenn is pleased to announce that Ms. Jeri Hamlin has been appointed by the Judges of the counties of Colusa, Glenn, Plumas and Tehama to serve as the Commissioner for these courts. The vacancy created by the judicial appointment of Commissioner Peter B. Twede. She will be taking the oath of office and assuming her duties on December 1, 2008.

Commissioner Hamlin graduated from Oregon State University with a bachelor's degree in Political Science in 1977 and from the Oregon School of Law in 1980 as Order of the Coif. She has been in private practice in Red Bluff, first in juvenile matters then specializing almost exclusively in family law from 1984 to the present.

Commissioner Hamlin is married to Mike Hamlin, a life long Orland resident and veterinary pharmaceutical sales representative of WALCO, International. She has two adult daughters, Chelsea Carrera (Milton) of Red Bluff and Lacy Symons of Sacramento, who is engaged to Clint Holtzen.

Commissioner Hamlin is active in church and community service including Orland Evangelical Free Church, Red Bluff Rotary and the Red Bluff State Theatre for the Arts.
